DID YOU EVER STOP TO THINK.
By Edson R. Waite, Shawnee, Oklahoma.
Lincoln, Nebr.—Newspaper advertising throws a powerful light to guide you when and where to buy the best at less.
A great part of the public of the United States has stood amazed at the period of non-prosperity that has come at the end of many smooth years, during which they have accepted the fallacy that prosperity was inherent in the in the conditions under which they lived and the geography of their country. The conditions and geography of America do indeed render it less liable to suffer from other peoples' trouble than other countries, but many people are just now discovering that the United States is no more than a cog in the wheel of the world and that the wheel has hesitated and begun to creak.
Some cities only keep about three jumps ahead of the hearse.
Keep your city miles ahead!
Success in anything means earnest effort and grim energy, dominated by a spirit of "I can and I will."
An automobile has its rights. Its rights, however, do not mean that it may be allowed to break the laws and endanger the life of the pedestrian and the car that keeps within the law.
The new name for Patriotism seems to be the word Economy.
You should help spread the fame of your city. Herald her advantages and achievements everywhere.
The law of vibration is among the most certain and un-erring of laws. It is the law of the radio, which has made earth upstairs one wonderful whispering everywhere.
Who is to decide what is good for the public, the public or someone else who can only do so by knowing better than the public just what is good for them?
If you spend your money in some other city and your neighbor does the same, what will become of your home city?
A sick man needs the services of a doctor. A sick business needs immediate attention also. Newspaper advertising is good medicine.

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.
The topic for our Bible School lesson for next Sunday is True Brotherhood. It is based on the story of Joseph and his brothers in Egypt during the famine days. It is found in Genesis, Chapter 44:18-34. Let all of our people carefully read this entire account. Brotherhood, based upon forgiveness and love, is a perpetual need among men. Since we have only one preaching service on Sunday, due to our cooperation in the Methodist Revival, it is highly important that all of our folks should attend the morning service—both Bible School and preaching services.
A Great Meeting on the Highway will be the subject of the Pastor's Sermon Sunday morning. You will want to hear it. Every man should give his soul a chance. This is a debt which all ought to pay. The way to ruin is wide, alluring and deceiving. It requires some effort to be Somebody.
Christ is able and willing to help every one of us. Make your plan and be at church Sunday morning.

Ward of the Farm Relief Finance Corporation addressed the meeting, urging the membership to encourage the borrowers of relief funds to save every thing that can be harvested and preserved in any manner in order to provide against need which may result from the drouth that now seems to impend. It is not a question of market value of produce so much as protection against possible
want which should rule in the present crisis.
The luncheon was well attended,
and several new members are in prospect.

THE METHODIST PASTOR

REV. P. E. LANCASTER

The Pastor of the local Methodist Church is holding a Protracted Meeting, announcement of which appears elsewhere in this paper.

GROWING INTEREST IN REVIVAL.
The revival meeting that is in progress at the Methodist church is undergoing a good headway. The interest is growing, the attendance is gradually increasing, new faces are being added,
to the attendance every night.
The meeting is being conducted by local leadership, the pastor doing the preaching. The music is being rendered by the local choir, and the congregation; that part alone of the worship is an inspiration. Every one is enjoying the singing of the good Gospel hymns. Special music is being offered from time to time.
The wise and prudent have come to realize that "Man cannot live by bread alone." But that he stands in need of the spiritual food that goes to supply his divine nature and prepare that part of himself that will not die to live in an acceptable state with the Lord God forever. This spiritual strength is produced by worship and communion. This Revival Meeting is for that purpose to strengthen our spiritual lives, and there is not a single individual in the community but that needs the inspiration and help that can be received from it. Yes, you need the meeting, even more than your cooperation is needed. The Revival can do without you but you cannot do without the revival and be prepared to meet your responsibility as a Christian citizen.
Think on your way.
Drift wood flows with the current.
Are you going with the mass of the worldly wise about you? Or like the mighty oak that has planted its roots in the earth is withstanding the storm and resisting the tempest that is trying to carry it down? Every person needs the help to be derived from worship and church attendance.

You may think you can get along without it, but we are reminded of the words of St. Paul when he said,
"We wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against the powers, principalities, and spiritual wickedness in high places", and to me this mighty power that is dragging us down, we must be firmly planted in the ground of eternal truth and righteousness.
Too many are building as Jesus says,
"on the shifting sand" and when the storms of life rage their little building goes down. Build on the Rock of eternal ages, Jesus and His eternal truth, and then and not until then,
will you be able to stand.
We are trying to go down to the solid rock for our foundation but in the process we have to go through sand, muck and there must be removed out of our lives a lot of the debris that is hindering us from getting to the solid rock. In that process there is a dying to the world, a rising to a new life in Christ.
No individual can afford to trifle
with his soul; it is too great a risk;
too big a gamble. You cannot afford to miss this revival; it is for you, to help into the right interpretation of Life. It is under the leadership of Him that gave His life a ransom for many. It is the Lord doing, and man cannot afford to hold himself aloof from it. Come in with your friends and neighbors in the effort to build into the life of your community the ideals that will withstand the storms
and ravages of the ages.
Service every night; you have a place to fill and joy to be found in the filling of it.
The Revival is to continue on thru next week. Do not say there is plenty of time, but come today, for "Today is the day of salvation."
P. E. Lancaster.

TRADE AT HOME.

If there ever was a time when local citizens should patronize home merchants and business concerns now is the time. Why "bite the hand that is feeding you?" Why drive your car to a far distant city to buy your merchandise when you can get the same merchandise in your home town at about the same price not counting the cost of operating your car in making the drive to make your purchase? You can bet your life that if you have to get in the "soup line" this winter that local people will have to furnish the soup for you. The merchants in other cities are not helping to build up your community, then why should you be so eager to spend your money with out-of-town merchants?—Kenedy Advance.

Remember you can get FARMING and this paper both for a year each for only $1.75.

A word that all too often expresses regret for things we have done in the past. Particularly, in financial matters. If I had only used better judgment—"IF I had only saved"—IF—IF—IF.

But greases won't help matters any. The past is past. Forget it. Look ahead with a smile and when you again have money to spare, seek the counsel of those who are experienced and reliable.

THE woman who gives her organs the right stimulant need not worry about growing old.

Her system doesn't stagnate; her face doesn't age. She has the health and "pep" that come from a lively liver and strong, active bowels.

When you're sluggish and the system needs help, don't take a lot of "patent medicines." There's a famous doctor's prescription for just such cases, and every druggist keeps this standard preparation. It is made from fresh laxative herbs, active senna, and pure pepsin. Just ask for Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin. Take a little every day or so, until every organ in your body feels the big improvement.

The next time you have a bilious headache, or feel all bound-up, take this delicious syrup instead of the usual cathartic. You'll be rid of all that poisonous waste, and you haven't weakened the bowels. You'll have a better appetite, and feel better in every way. The constant use of cathartics is often the cause of a sallow complexion and lines in the face. And so unnecessary!

Would you like to break yourself of the cathartic habit? At the same time building health and vigor that protects you from frequent sick spells, headaches, and colds? Get a big bottle of Dr. Caldwell's syrup pepsin today. Use often enough to avoid those attacks of constipation. When you feel weak and run-down or a coated tongue or bad breath warns you the bowels need to be stimulated. Give it to children instead of strong laxatives that weaken their strength. It isn't expensive.

ACCURACY IN TEXAS FARM CENSUS SHOWN IN EARLY REPORTS.

Early reports of county tax assessors of enumerations in the Texas farm census, being conducted for the first time with federal-state cooperation, show a high degree of accuracy that indicates a complete survey of farm conditions will be the result, Carl H. Robinson, senior agricultural statistician for the federal department, today reported to Commissioner J. E. McDonald of the Texas department.

Both the Texas and federal departments of agriculture are cooperating in the taking of the census. Statisticians of the federal-state crop and livestock reporting service will assemble and compile the information obtained by the census.

Commissioner McDonald and Statistician Robinson joined in praising the tax assessors for their work and in further urging them to speed the work by remitting the report books as soon as enumerations are completed.

Correspondence between census officials and county tax assessors indicates that all are complying with the law, enacted by the Forty-second Legislature, which requires county assessors to gather all information for the farm census even though no appropriation was made to defray the additional expense to which they were put.

Tax assessors can materially speed up completion of the work and issuance of a bulletin in which the findings and statistics of the census are to be printed by returning the enumeration books as soon as completed. Commissioner McDonald pointed out. He further urged farmers to fully cooperate with the assessors by readily giving the information desired.

Returns from the census are arriving about as early as expected, not expected until the latter part of May. Assessors are required to complete enumerations and file the reports by the first of June.

Census figures will be announced in the bulletin, which will be published in September if assessors' reports are filed promptly. It will give statistics showing a complete agricultural picture of all counties and of the entire State. Information as to individual operations will not be

Two years ago I opposed the return of the open saloon. This year I favor it. I want a system of state control of liquor business under which any adult citizen can buy a good 5-cent glass of beer, as freely as he can buy a glass of fruit juice or soda water. I believe the return of good cheap beer, and of pure wines made from our wonderful Texas fruits, would do more to banish hard times, bad whiskey and bath-tub medicine than a thousand years of prohibition.—Frank Putnam.

BABY
FRETFUL,
RESTLESS?

Look to this cause

When your baby fusses, tosses and seems unable to sleep restfully, look for one common cause, doctors say, Constipation. To get rid quickly of the accumulated wastes which cause restlessness and discomfort, give a restless baby a dose of Castoria. It is a pure vegetable preparation; contains no harsh drugs, no narcotics. It is so mild and gentle you can give it to a young infant to relieve colic. Castoria is effective for older children. Castoria's regulative help will bring relaxation and restful sleep to your baby. Keep a bottle on hand.
Genuine Castoria always has the name:

NEW FOUNTAIN METHODIST.

Just closed a ten days Revival Sunday night; all services, day or night,
were well attended, to say the least.
If you missed one service you missed
a blessing. Brother Banks is a Christian gentleman and knows Christ. Every sermon was a testimony of experience. "I know that my Redeemer liveth and that He is able to save." Church was revived and sinners converted. We were not dealing with numbers but SOULS.
Listen: "One Soul is worth more than the Whole world." Our prayers are that God continue to use us in showing to those that have not accepted Christ the beauty of the Christian life.

Program for Sunday, June 12, 1932.
Sunday School, 9:30 A. M., Bro.
Hy. C. Muennink, Supt.
Laymen's Day Services at 10:45 A.
M. Prof. W. W. Jackson, President of Westmoorland College, San Antonio, Texas, will be the principal speaker. Also it's Father's Day—
let's go to church.
Evening Service at 8:00 P. M.
Young People's Service.
Prayer Meeting every Wednesday
at 8:00 P. M. At close of prayer meeting Choir practice.
No instructor can make scholars
out of truants. No general can win a war with deserters. The Church is both a school and an army, and can do little with absentees. So let us
ALL be at our post of DUTY—at Sunday school—at Worship—and at Prayer Meeting.
E. W. DECHERT,
Pastor.

Dr. Miles'
NERVINE
"Did the work"
says
Miss Glivar
WHY DON'T YOU
TRY IT?

After more than three months
of suffering from a nervous ailment, Miss Glivar used Dr. Miles' Nervine which gave her such splendid results that she wrote us an enthusiastic letter.

If you suffer from "Nerves."
If you lie awake nights,
start at sudden noises, tire easily, are cranky, blue and fidgety, your nerves are probably out of order.

Quiet and relax them with the same medicine that "did the work" for this Colorado girl.

Whether your "Nerves" have troubled you for hours or for years, you'll find this time-tested remedy effective.

Messrs. Walter H. Mangold, V. H.
Abodie and Ralph E. Stone, were in Hondo Friday of last week in the interest of the Sportsman's Protective League of Texas. In an interview with a representative of this paper
the gentlemen informed us, among other things, that the purposes of the League are to educate the people of Texas to the necessity of the propagation and conservation of the game,
fish and beneficial wild animal life
in Texas; to demand and create a legislation that will do away with the Game, Fish and Oyster Commission as an appointive body with which the Governor may fulfill his political obligations, and form a new Game, Fish and Oyster Commission which shall be elected by the people and answerable to the people.

ed complications her recovery should be complete in the near future.

Prepares SMALL »» GRAIN «« SEEDBEDS cheaply

WITH only 6 inches
separating its 20-
inch blades, the Case
Great Plains Disk Plow
"beats them all" with its excellent work in preparing seedbeds for spring grains.

It was especially built for plowing large areas cheaply;
ideal for summer fallow cultivation. Each blade cuts a narrow furrow to the desired depth
—breaking it up and mixing it with the surface trash. Every inch of soil is moved; all weeds
are completely controlled.

Chilled, cone type, end-thrust ball bearing lightness draft; makes disks turn easy—an exclusive Case feature. It cuts wide and covers the ground rapidly—a real time saver. Power lift for all sizes; lever lift available on larger sizes if desired. Also made with 8-inch disk spacing.
We recommend this modern Case plow to every grain farmer who wants to speed up his plowing, cut his costs and increase his profits. SEE IT BE-FORE YOU BUY.

JACOB G. KARM DEAD.

Last Wednesday at about 6 o'clock Mr. Jacob Karm died while he was being hurried to a doctor. A few weeks ago Mr. Karm suffered a light stroke of paralysis and Wednesday he received a second stroke. He was apparently in good health and chatted happily with his friends until late Wednesday afternoon when he suffered a slight pain in his left arm. His son started to take him to a doctor but the unfortunate man died just before reaching town. His unexpected and sudden death came as a great shock to his family and friends.

The funeral was held Thursday afternoon from the Horger Funeral Home, Rev. Walter C. Leibfarth, pastor of the local Lutheran Church officiating. Interment was made in Oakwood Cemetery. The service at the grave was beautified by several appropriate anthems sung by the choir. The attendance was large and the floral offerings were many and beautiful. Pallbearers were Albert Karm, Oscar Karm, Henry Burell, George Hartman, Louis Senne and Willie Leinweber.

Mr. Jacob Karm was born February 2, 1865. Shortly after his birth he was baptized and on June 16, 1878, he was confirmed in the Roman Catholic faith in Castroville. On September 27, 1894, he was married to Miss Mary Senne.

He leaves to mourn him, his wife and two children, Mr. George Karm of Hondo and Mrs. Josephine Sitre of Brackettville, and seven grandchildren.

Mr. Karm was a kind husband, generous father, a good neighbor and friend and always ready to help in distress.

The many friends of the grief-stricken ones extend sympathy and consolation to them in their sorrow. A Friend.

OBITUARY.

"What then shall we say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us? He that spared not His own Son, but delivered Him up for us all, how shall He not with Him also freely give us all things?" Romans 8:31-32.

The deceased, Jacob G. Karm, son of George Karm and Agnes nee Mann of Overance in Alsace, France, was born on February 2, 1865, at Castroville, Texas. His early life was spent at this place, and here at Castroville he attended the parochial school.

The departed chose the occupation of farmer, which he followed to his sudden end.

Jacob Karm was given by his parents to the Lord in Holy Baptism, when the Heavenly Father opened His arms of love to him, and according to His promise, continued to love to the end. Being baptized into the Catholic faith, the deceased was also instructed and became confirmed in such faith on June 16, 1878, at the age of 13 years. Later he could not agree to certain teachings of his faith and thus ceased to follow it.

On September 27, 1894, the departed was united in holy wedlock to his faithful wife and companion, Mary Senne. The Lord blessed this happy union with two children, George A. Karm and Josephine, now Mrs. Sitre of Brackett. After many trying times, the couple were privileged to move into a home of their own, which the departed enjoyed for only a short time.

The deceased was in comparatively good health throughout his average span of life. Lately a severe stroke left him unconscious for several hours. Only slowly did he rally from this attack. He seemed to be regaining strength and was in good spirits when on Wednesday, June 1, another stroke came on. He was taken to Hondo by his son, but it proved to be a futile effort for the malady affected his heart, and he was dead when they reached Hondo. This sudden end brings a shock to the community. We sympathize with those who mourn his departure. The deceased reached the age of 67 years, 3 months and 30 days. He leaves to mourn him, a widow and 2 children, 7 grandchildren and a large relationship as well as many friends. May the Lord give lasting comfort to the bereaved, and teach us all to number our days, that we may apply our hearts unto wisdom.

DILLON CHEVROLET
MOVED OUT.

The bankruptcy court last week sold the assets of the Dillon Chevrolet Co. at auction. The goods and equipment were purchased by Mr. Andrew Carnesi, of San Antonio, who, after disposing of some of the stock locally, moved what remained of it to San Antonio yesterday. The Chevrolet people are now not only without a service representative at Hondo but in the entire county, the agency at Devine having also failed.

COLONIAL COVERINGS.

Tom Mix, with his wonder pony, Tony, will be seen at the Colonial Theatre this Saturday and Sunday in "Destry Rides Again." It is Tom Mix's first talking picture and promises to be a thrilling Western drama.

The attraction for Thursday and Friday, inspired Paramount's talking edition of "Misleading Lady," a stage hit, co-stars Edmund Lowe, who has a strong way with women, and Claudette Colbert, who has a silent, but equally effective way with men. Stuart Erwin, George Meeker, Selena Royle, Robert Strange and William Gargan are among those accorded conspicuous supporting parts. Miss Colbert plays Lowe for a dupe to make him propose in order to win a wager. He retaliates by kidnapping her and breaking her spirit with the help of chains and an escaped lunatic. Before the final scene is allowed to disclose an all's-well-and-happy solution, a reporter, two drunks with a mystery they never quite spill, an avenging lover, and two other visitors from the asylum, are involved in complications that transpire in a mountain rendezvous far from law and order, telegraph or the railway.

ELITE BRIDGE CLUB.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Windrow were hosts to the Elite Club with a delightful bridge last Thursday night, with three tables of players. Red Radiance roses were lovely decorative notes about the home, and tallies and bridge appointments were carried out in the same color.

Mrs. Robert Kollman and Mr. Geo. Windrow won high Club prizes. Dr. John Henry Meyer received the prize for guests.

The hostess served refreshing punch and sandwiches during the bridge.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Volney Boon, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kollman, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Connevey, Mr. and Mrs. George Windrow, Misses Regina and Hermine Nester, Dr. John Henry Meyer, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Windrow.

RETURN FROM TRIP.

Last Sunday and Monday C. R. Gaines and R. W. Gaines and families made a visit to Victoria, Port Lavaca and Sea Drift, where they visited relatives. They also went fishing at the site of old Indianola, the old destroyed city that was swept away by a tidal wave in 1886, when about nine hundred lost their lives. Now no one is living there and only a few fishing parties frequent it. It once was a great sea port, the Morgan line of large ocean-going steamers, about four a week, being loaded with Texas Longhorn cattle. It is, as a rule, a wonderful place for fish, but one best take his water with him. Mr. Gaines says it is about one to four feet above the sea level and it was very common in the old days to go down main street at high tide and find the water two feet deep. The people did not think anything about it until it was too late. You can still see hundreds of old iron safes and cement cisterns scattered over the place where once stood a prosperous city.

THE ONLY REAL FARM RELIEF.

Most farmers are shortsighted, pinning their faith on "reforms" that are superficial and never touch the roots of their troubles. What about taxes? If Congress should make it a law that all taxes should be laid on industry and commerce, the farmers would be paying the taxes just the same by the round-about route of that much higher prices on everything the farmers must buy. If the farmers want to know just how much they are taxed in a year they should look at not only their own direct tax but at the government state, and county budgets added together. Let us reason from fundamentals. Man needs Food, Clothing and Shelter. The production of these things, from the raw material to the finished product, are the three basic activities to which everything else is auxiliary, secondary. In early times most families used food, clothing and shelter of the home-made kind. Later some individuals specialized in making clothing and others in building the shelters, but as a general rule it was, in effect, only an exchange of work-days, so that the artisan had about the same amount of food or income in a year as if he had been one of the farmers. Gradually there came inventions. Better tools and machinery. The village blacksmith and the small machine shop worked on the same principle as the tailor and builder, and nobody was cheated and nobody was very poor nor rich. But patent-rights and large scale manufacturing brought another era, the era of Profits. That was the end of fair play between the farmer and his tool-maker. No more the old order of an exchange of a work-day for a work day between them. So that today the farmer has to work ten days or more for what is produced by one man one day in the Big Tool Shop. Now if the farmers would build their own machine shop, their own flour mill, saw mill, clothing factory and a few other plants and run them co-operatively, there could again be an even exchange of work-day for work-day between the man in the field and the farmers' sons in the shops and no profitmongers could get in between them and make millions and billions out of other peoples' labor. And now suppose one of the co-operative farmers should one day get the bright idea that they all should shift the taxes from the farms and place them on their industrial departments! Well, as long as you leave to our manufacturers to alone set the prices on their goods you sure have to pay their taxes. Just now most farmers think that a high price on wheat and cotton is the main thing needed. But suppose you could buy your agricultural implements for half their present price your 50 cent wheat would go exactly as far as dollar wheat and present implement price, wouldn't it? Well, your implements and other city made goods would cost you less than half if you produced them co-operatively and kept the billion-dollar dividends out of the prices. Alexander Legge no doubt was in favor of the farmers getting more income, so that the Harvester trust could sell more implements but you wouldn't catch him giving the farmers the advice to make (save) money at the other end by taking over the Harvester trust co-operatively or build its duplicate.

The cause of any depression anywhere is that there is not an even exchange of goods and money between Industry and Agriculture, between the farmer and his Tool-Maker. And when industry has kept on handing to agriculture only one dollar for every ten it takes from the farmer it is only a question of time when all the money has wandered over to Industry, and the farmer can't buy anything any more and everything comes to a stop.

The present collapse was really due some years ago, but it was postponed artificially: First, by letting the farmers get some money by mortgaging the farms, and then again by working the high-pressure salesmanship racket and the installment traps. The stockmarket crash didn't cause this depression; the crash came as a result of the warehouses beginning to choke with goods that could not be forced on a moneyless farm population neither by the installment plan nor any other plan.

The two billion dollar dole to the banks won't do much good. Because there is no intention of quitting the system of handing out to agriculture one dollar for each ten collected by Industry, Banks and Tax makers. And the dole for reviving the building industry looks only ridiculous in face of the fact that hundreds of thousands of houses are now vacant because their former occupants could not pay rent. If the government was a bit concerned about helping homeless to homes and farmers to better buildings—and not merely helping the building industry as an industry—there should have been some effort made to tell the homeless and the farmers about the best building methods in the world,—building with rammed earth,—which gives you a healthy and everlasting house, and one which anyone can build himself with very little cash outlay. All of which I know by pleasant experience. But when just common soil is the building material there is nothing in the method for Big Business, and so the people are not allowed to hear anything about it. Anyway farmers could save money on that too.

Karl J. Ellington, Port Angeles, Washington.

LIKED OUR VERSES.

Mr. Fletcher Davis, Publisher and Editor, Hondo, Texas. Dear Mr. Davis:

This acknowledges receipt of your splendid paper March issue, which I enjoyed very much. Allow me to express to you my personal appreciation of "The Miracle Worker." It is the most encouraging contribution of it's kind to the farmer, that I have ever read. God will surely bless this poem, and after you have passed on, it's encouraging message will endure. Most cordially,

Mrs. Edna Howard Evans Parchman.

A SHOWER FOR THE JUNE BRIDE

By Juliette Frazier.

A unique and beautiful way of giving a shower to a bride-to-be is to lead her to a wishing well. After the guests have assembled, each one is given a pencil and paper on which is painted a tiny Cupid, and each is asked to write an original poem to Cupid. These little verses cause much merriment when read aloud. Then the Mistress of Ceremonies announces: "In the days of our grandmothers there was a legend that if a maid would go to the wishing well just before her wedding day any wish she might make would be granted, and as we want our friend and bride-to-be to have every wish of hers granted at this happy time we have induced Cupid to be with us this evening and conduct her to this old wishing well."

Folding doors are thrown open, and a little girl dressed as Cupid leads the Bride-to-be into another room, where an old fashioned well has been concealed. This well is made of a large box covered over with vines and pink roses. At the top of the well is a pulley and at one end of the rope is an old oaken bucket. The bucket is lowered by the bride, and Cupid stands on the other side of the well to help her draw it up. One article is put in the bucket by another little girl concealed in the well, and when the bucket is drawn up the bride opens the gift and reads aloud the wish with the gift. The bucket is then lowered again and again until all of the gifts have been drawn up.

At supper-time there is a large cake placed in front of the guest of honor, in which are the traditional button, thimble, dime and ring. The ice cream Cupid molds is served with the cake. As the guests leave, Cupid stands at the door and gives to the departing guests a pierced heart or an arrow from his quiver.

SUMMER APPETITES TURN TO SALADS.

With the approaching hot days, appetites turn from the hot to the cold, luscious foods. Menus that are not only cold and appetizing but are quickly and easily prepared are more readily accepted during the summer months.

Salads hold the greatest place among the summer menus due to the plentifulness of fruits and salad greens with their refreshing qualities. There are many varieties of salads including meat, eggs, vegetable, fruit, berries and a combination of these. Eggs, vegetables, fruits and berries are very inexpensive and should be used to a large extent due to their abundance and valuable nutritional qualities notwithstanding their low cost.

Salads must be cold, crisp, well blended in flavor and attractive in arrangement. A salad shows the artistic or inventive qualities of a housewife more than any other dish she prepares.

A variety of salads may be made by varying the dressing. Light salads, such as lettuce with French dressing, should be served with hearty meals. Heavy salads, such as meat, egg, cheese salads or those with mayonnaise dressing should be served as the main course of a luncheon or

A thin aerial veil is drawn o'er beauty's face, seeming to hide, more sweetly shows the blushing bride.—Crashaw.

June, the month of brides, is just around the corner, and everyone, especially the bride of the past, is anxious to help, to advise, to live again in the plans of the June bride. The share in the bride's joy often takes the form of a shower, where intimate friends shower the bride-to-be with trousseau gifts, and Mrs. Frazier's article on the June bride is an opportune and appropriate one. She makes use of the old adage of the wishing well that we have heard from babyhood and combines it cleverly with the bridal shower. Have you noticed, too, that this supposedly unromantic magazine has a helpful suggestion to offer the bride? Elsewhere in this issue the editor offers for the month of June to print wedding invitations and announcements at a minimum cost. In addition Farming sends a wedding present of a full year's subscription to this paper. You furnish the bride—

Two interesting pieces of correspondence have come to me, and as I'm sure they will appeal to you, I am citing from both. The first is from Mrs. Louise Dillon of Colchester, Illinois, who writes of an appealing human interest note of that stalwart character, Theodore Roosevelt. It reads:

Dear Miss Davis:

I find in my scrap book, clipped from the Ithica Daily News, years ago—

"Deep in the Main woods, on the shores of Lake Mattawampeag, is 'Bible Point', a thick tongue of land extended into the waters. The name derives from an iron box nailed to a tree, and containing a Bible. Above this box is this legend: 'This place, to which a great man in his youth liked to come and commune with God and the wonder of the visible world is dedicated to the happy memory of light meal. A fruit salad with whipped cream dressing should be served in place of a dessert.

Chiffonade Dressing.

- 2 hard boiled eggs (chopped)
- 3 olives (chopped)
- 1 T green pepper (chopped)
- 2 T pimentos (chopped)
- 1 T parsley (chopped)
- 1 1/2 c French dressing

Method: Mix the chopped eggs, olives, green pepper, pimentos, and parsley with French dressing and serve on lettuce.

Theodore Roosevelt. Stranger, rest here, and consider what one man having faith in the right, and love for his fellows was able to do for his country."

H H

The second is a letter from Mrs. Frazier. Mrs. Frazier is a very prolific writer, as readers of Farming are well aware, as she has written on every possible phase of farm problem, in addition to her entertainment articles found in this department. She wishes to know what articles appeal, and asks that you make suggestions as how to improve our page. It would be of great help to this page, to me and to the contributors of this page, if you will write us a short letter telling us which articles on this page you enjoy most, which are the most practical and most beneficial, and while you are writing us, slip in your favorite summer recipe. You must have several of them.

Here is Mrs. Frazier's letter:

Dear Miss Davis:

I have a suggestion to make. That is, that you would invite the readers of Farming to let us know if they like the monthly entertainment articles or if perhaps they would rather have some more practical articles fill up that space.

As far as I am concerned, it makes no difference to me what sort of articles I write, but it may make a great deal of difference to our audience. I realize that we must please the reading public if we wish to see our paper grow.

In the meanwhile, I am going to continue to send you monthly entertainment articles until we find out if our readers wish us to continue with them or not.

Wishing you all that your heart can wish.

Very sincerely,

Juliette Frazier.

The summer salad suggestions are the contribution of the Home Economics Department of the Texas State College for Women, Denton, Texas.

Honey Dressing.

- 1 T sugar
 - 1/2 c strained honey
 - juice of 1 lemon and grated rind
 - 3 egg yolks beaten with sugar
- Method: Cook all in double boiler until thick. When cool and ready to serve, add 1 c whipped cream.

"My husband is away much of the time and I want a parrot for company. Does this one use rough language?"

"Lady, with this bird in the house you'd never miss your husband."

"YOU ARE RICH; YOU CAN WALK."

Yesterday a little crippled boy looked up at me wistfully from the white bed in the Hospital for Crippled Children. He said one thing that was worthy the insight of a philosopher. He played with my watch and pen, then asked for my pocket-book. He examined the few meager coins in it, and handed it back to me saying, "You are rich."

When I denied being rich, he said: "Yes you are rich. You can walk."

That little philosopher has never taken a step, but he knows that real riches are not in pocketbooks but in strong legs and well-formed bodies to do the work and play of life. I think I shall always see his little pinched-up, white face, and whenever I feel inclined to grumble a bit, as we all do, I shall hear the pathetic tenor of his quivering little voice: "You are rich. You can walk."

Not long ago Mr. Rockefeller, the world's wealthiest citizen, passed into his eighty-sixth year. I wonder if the oil magnate could have stood at that bed and offered that little boy all his riches, the little fellow would not have said: "Take your old gold, but give me rather a pair of good legs to walk upon."

Then I thought if some earth-favored mortal whose ships on the sea of life had brought home all the precious things for which mortals strive, could have stood there and made a proffer of it all to the boy to pay him for the loss of limbs, the little man would have said: "I'd rather run and walk and play in the sunshine than to be the richest king."

The common blessings of the earth are the richest. All else is tinsel in comparison.

Have you fair or good health, and can you run about? Thank God, and do not complain at little things again!

Have you the faith of loved ones? Then leave the d'rgs alone.

Have you sanity and the right use of mental powers? Then sing a song every day.

Have you a task that's "high and open to the sun?" Then all the world is at your feet.

When life's clouds hang low and heavy, just take a peep at things through the eyes of the little crippled boy, and then thank God that you can walk!—Dr. Holland, in The Progressive Farmer.

To Miss Boyd's incoming class of next year, we will the poetical ability of one Thomas Hager and the literary ability of Adolf Balzen. With this we extend the reserved nature of Jack Muenink to the boisterous nature of August Finger of the Junior Class. We, the Seniors of '32 also wish to extend our sincere hopes that the said Miss Boyd shall enjoy throughout next year the early morning vocal brevity program that has been sent over the air at regular intervals.

FIFTEENTH: The Senior class as a whole wishes to will to the Juniors, Sophomores, Freshmen, and other experienced greenhorns their everlasting ability to agree on all arising questions at all times.

We beseech all the benefactors under this will not to contest same, but for each and everyone to accept such benefits as are herein left to him. If this will seems in any manner to show partiality to any one, it is not because we love such person less than any other, but because of the fact that his needs are less than those of another.

Should any devise under this will attempt to break same or in any manner to contest same, such devise so contesting shall receive no benefits under this will just as though his or her name had not been mentioned therein.

In evidence whereof witnessed my hand the twenty-third day of May, 1932.

Hondo Anvil Herald:

In last week's issue of the Herald inquiry was made as to what became of the Indian shield that was captured in the battle of Carrizo Springs. The late Joseph Naegelin, of Castroville, Texas, was a Texas Ranger under Capt. Richards, and on the morning of the battle at Carrizo Springs the ranger force under Capt. Richards was split into two detachments, both going out on scouting duty, and a request of the Indians which infested the country in 1870.

One of the detachments above mentioned met the Indians and as related in the Herald a fierce battle ensued in which the white man had to retreat. Joseph Naegelin was not in this battle, his detachment was several miles away hunting the same Indians. In the battle mentioned an Indian shield was captured, and Joseph Naegelin was entrusted to carry the same to Austin and present it to Gov. E. J. Davis. This shield was afterwards donated to the Texas Historical Association, and to this day is still among the treasured relics of early days, resting in the Texas Museum. This shield had several scalps attached to it.

CHANGE IN MANAGEMENT.

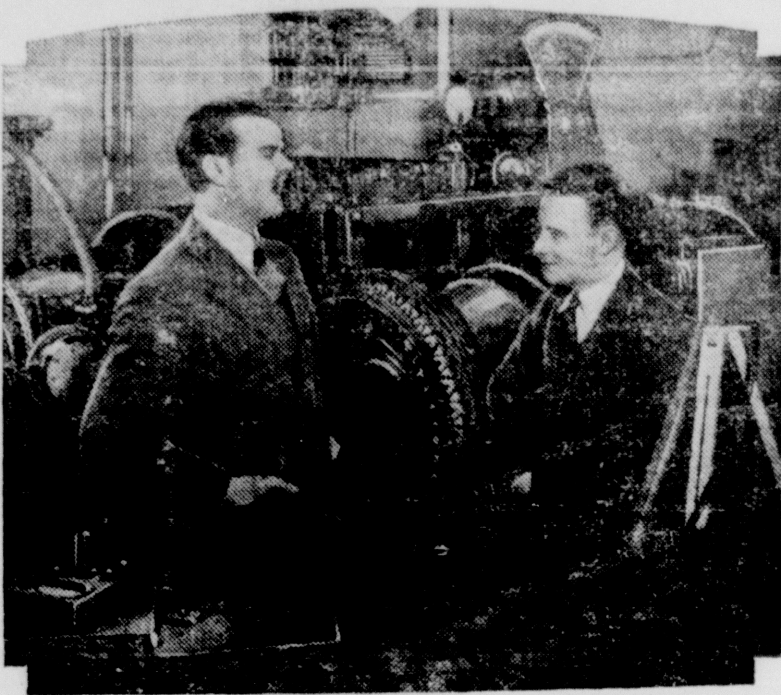

Mr. McElroy, for several years office manager of the McElroy Motor Co., handling the Ford Automobile Agency here, retired on the first of the month and was succeeded by Mr. F. H. Holmig of Fredericksburg.

The business will continue under the same name and with but little further change in the personnel of the employees.

Mr. Holmig is a young man, but experienced in the business. Mr. and Mrs. McElroy are at present located in Kerrville at which place they resided before coming to Hondo.

Tibbett's 99 Decibels in E Flat Exceed Boiler Factory in Volume

Lawrence Tibbett measuring voice as Harvey S. Firestone Jr., watches

WITH Lawrence Tibbett, noted singer, as the subject of the test, science has now proven that the soothing tinkle of gold in the human voice has greater sound volume than the jarring crash of iron and steel in the familiar discords of modern life. In other words the music of Tibbett's singing exceeds in volume the din of a boiler factory, a riveting machine, or the streets of New York in their most violent moments.

This test is believed to be the first ever made of determining the exact volume of a famous singer's voice. It took place when Lawrence Tibbett was in Akron the other day as the guest of Harvey S. Firestone, Jr., vice president of The Firestone Tire and Rubber Company, sponsors of the Monday night radio programs of which the Metropolitan grand opera and talking picture star is the regular artist.

The measuring of Tibbett's "golden voice" was done under the personal supervision of Roy W. Brown, noted Firestone research engineer and member of the Society of Automotive Engineers Research Committee. One of the instruments in the Firestone research laboratory is an audiometer, an extremely sensitive piece of mechanism, which is part of the extensive equipment used in detecting, photographing and eliminating sound from tires in motion. With Harvey S. Firestone, Jr., watching the recordings of the audiometer, Tibbett went through his first experience of singing in a factory. Instead of a fashionable Metropolitan Opera House audience, his background was the machinery and tools used in the development by Firestone of silent tires.

Sound is measured in units known as decibels. With a long sustained note in E flat, Tibbett sent the needle of the audiometer spinning to 99 decibels. Brown, familiar with the readings of the delicate instrument, looked startled. He had known that Tibbett possesses one of the most powerful voices of modern times but he had not believed it capable of surpassing the terrific volume created by some of the most violent of everyday noises.

Checking up against computation tables, it was found that the 99 decibels registered by Tibbett were in comparison to the decibel ratings of the following: riveter 98; boiler factory 95; maximum New York street noise 92; roaring lion 88; police whistle 85; noisy New York street 80; street car 70; piano practice 60 and purring of cat 20. The only sound of greater volume which the chart listed was that of an airplane, 110 decibels.

HOW ELECTRIC LIGHTS SOLVED THE PROBLEM.

By Juliette Frazier.

The question of having electric lights installed in our chicken house had been under discussion three years ago when the power line was extended out our way, but when we figured the expenses of having the house and the barn wired, we decided that we could not afford to have the chicken house wired also. Anyway, our chickens were quite profitable at that time, even if they were not as productive as they might have been under better housing conditions. Eggs and poultry were still bringing fair prices and we were satisfied with the returns from our flock.

But the time soon came when the price of eggs and poultry gradually began to drop. After a while we found out that the income realized from our chickens barely covered the expenses of their feed. Still the price of eggs and poultry continued to drop, and before long we were aware of the fact that the income was no longer meeting the necessary expenditure required to properly feed our chickens.

The problem of how to bring our flock back on to a paying basis proved very perplexing. We tried to cut down on their feed, but that only lessened the egg production.

We turned the chickens outdoors to shift for themselves, but since it was late in the fall when many days were cold and rainy, that also, proved a failure. After having tried almost every conceivable scheme to cut expenses, we began to wonder if it would not be wiser to increase the income by increasing the egg yield. But how? Someone suggested electric lights in the chicken house, and because we had become just about exasperated in trying to solve the problem, we accepted their suggestion. Although now we could less afford to have lights installed than we could during the days of better prices.

However, the lights were installed. Two days later we began to notice a marked increase in the number of eggs which were gathered from the nests. Three weeks after the lights were installed there was an increase of about 130 eggs daily.

From a flock of four hundred hens which formerly produced an average of only 165 eggs each day, now we gathered all the way from 287 to 295 eggs daily. Thus the increased production of eggs promoted by the use of electric lights helped us to meet the feed bills and realize a fair profit from our flock even while prices are low.

Jack: For medicine of course. Haven't you heard of sugar-cured hams?

YOUNG FOLKS LISTEN.

It is time you were thinking seriously about that business education necessary for getting on the pay roll this fall, or being prepared to work your way through college. By entering Byrne College now, you can do what Miss Mary Dell Wilson, the young lady whose picture appears on the enclosed circular, has done. A year ago, now, she was graduated from high school, today she is a well paid government secretary in the State Banking Department. Hundreds of our graduates who enrolled with us when high school closed last year would not think of giving up their position and be placed back along side of those who did not take advantage of Byrne training last summer.

Don't let the employment question bother you. It isn't bothering Byrne students graduating at this time, for we have a very effective plan of securing positions for our graduates, and as business improves along toward fall it will be even easier for us to place them.

You would enjoy spending your summer under electric fans in Byrne College. Our work being practically all of the laboratory type makes it so different from the work you have been doing that it will be a rest for you. You will enjoy the association of our splendid student body of fine young men and women. There isn't a finer group to be found anywhere than you will find in Byrne College. Please remember that Byrne College with its seven copyrighted textbooks is the only school that can give you a thorough business course and graduate you by the first of September ready for the pay roll or college.

We invite you to visit us and get our special prices, and also get our plan of making up special courses of study which you can handle under our individual advancement plan. These special courses are made up with a view of giving you just what you want in the shortest time possible and at the smallest possible cost. We give you almost twice as much for your time and money as any other school in the city, but come and see for yourself.

If you have had commercial work in high school, we make a liberal allowance for the advancement already made, for we build on what you have. If you only need our Office Training and Employment Service, we are able to make you very attractive prices and terms for this service.

Please call at our office, or write or phone us, at your earliest convenience. You will find our school very interesting and very different from any other. It is more like a big business office, and our individual advancement plan and our laboratory method of teaching give us an advantage you will appreciate. CONCRETE FLOOR BEING PUT IN MESS HALL AT BOY SCOUT CAMP SITE.

Your Scout Executive, with two finishers, is at Camp Fawcett this week helping to put a concrete floor in the mess hall, thus making the place more sanitary for our boys who go to camp this summer. Several of the citizens in the Barkadale Community are volunteering at least one day each to help in this construction work, thus doing a very worthwhile and much appreciated Boy Scout turn.

Also an advance group of men and older boys from the Buffalo Trail Council of Sweetwater, Texas which will use our camp site for two weeks beginning June 13th, will arrive at the campsite on Wednesday or Thursday of this week to assist in getting this work done before camp opens.

We are glad to welcome this neighboring Council to our Area and to have them use our beautiful Boy Scout Camp site.

Scouts, don't forget that our camp opens on August the 9th. Let's get ready for it.

This month begins another Scout year for the Southwest Texas Council, and the Headquarters Office is planning to launch a new program for the year, as outlined by the Executive Board.

We are counting on our Scout friends to help us make this program possible.
